

A glass sphere sits on a dark, pebbly beach. The sphere is filled with water and reflects the sky and ocean. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds, and the ocean is visible in the background. The title 'THE Call to be Free' is written in a red, cursive font across the sphere. The word 'THE' is in all caps, 'Call' is in a larger, more prominent cursive, 'to be' is in a smaller cursive, and 'Free' is in a large, bold cursive.
